

What Does Czech Data Say About The Drugs and Alcohol related Car Accidents?

For severe injuries, the probability of drug intoxication and drunkenness is less than 10%, while for light injuries, the probability of being drunk is over 29%!

For severe injuries, the highest average value is for sober individuals, while for light injuries, those under the influence of alcohol have the highest average value.

The brand with the highest probability is BMW, followed by Škoda, Volvo, Toyota, and Audi. BMW significantly exceeds other brands with a probability exceeding 2%!

